Appendix

Summary of the principles of Dr. Rudolf Steiner relating to the establishment and operation of Camphill charities.

Rudolf Steiner (1861-1925), an Austrian philosopher, scientist and social reformer, extended scientific research beyond the existing parameters of natural science to investigate the non-physical, spiritual realities of life. Using clear and accessible means for attaining spiritual knowledge, he offered insights that have inspired new approaches to medicine, education, the arts, architecture, agriculture, social reform and economics. As in the natural sciences, spiritual science employs objective methodologies which can be understood with rigorous thinking and empirically verified in practical activity. The name given to this new branch of science is 'anthroposophy', a Greek word meaning 'wisdom of Man'.

Anthroposophical principles as to curative treatment, education, medicine, architecture, agriculture, horticulture, art, science and religion form the basis of the life and activities of communities, provided that every member of such communities shall be at liberty to follow the religion of his/her choice. Rigidity in the matter of control should be avoided and the closest liaison should be maintained between all those responsible for the administration of the Charity and its community or communities in their everyday life.

Specific practices following the developed social and philosophical ideas and theories of Rudolf Steiner should be integrated into the work of the Charity as far as appropriate, including:

1. Community Life.

Camphill establishes and maintains intentional communities. Their sustainability rests on an ethical foundation that recognises the uniqueness of the individual and seeks to respect, value and enhance the strengths and potential of each one. Social life in Camphill communities is based upon a threefold arrangement reflecting the recognition of the human being as comprising body, soul and spirit. This arrangement is expressed in the exercise of freedom in the spiritual/cultural domain; the safeguarding of equality in the realm of rights and responsibilities; and the practice of brotherliness in the economic realm. By application of these principles community members are bound together by will and personal commitment, not by legal constructs, meaning, for beneficiaries, any form of compulsion and for Co-workers the rights and obligations of contract.

2. Steiner Waldorf Education.

Based on the work and teachings of Rudolf Steiner, this is founded on an understanding of the human being related to specific concepts of body, soul and spirit and their development through childhood. It integrates educational content and method in ways that are supportive of this. The curriculum aims to meet the developmental needs of the growing child and adolescent, nurturing faculties rather than merely delivering prescribed information.

3. Anthroposophical Medicine.

This an extension of natural scientific medicine which constitutes an international school of thought and practice based on the work and teachings of Rudolf Steiner and as further elaborated by the Medical Section of the School for Spiritual Science based at the Goetheanum, Switzerland and by its members working throughout the world. Anthroposophical medicine includes the prescribing of anthroposophically developed medicines, therapies, social therapies, and pastoral medicine.

4. Biodynamic Agriculture and Horticulture.

This unique form of organic husbandry is inspired by the research of Rudolf Steiner and is founded on a holistic and spiritual understanding of nature and the human being. It embraces respect for the environment, production of healthy food, and an understanding of the valuable connections between the individual, the community and the spiritual forces at work in nature.

Members

3. The Members shall be such individuals as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles. A person who wishes to become a Member shall apply to the Charity in such form as the Trustees require.
4. The Trustees may in their absolute discretion decline to accept any person as a Member and need not give reasons for so doing.
5. The Trustees may from time to time prescribe criteria for membership but shall not by so doing become obliged to accept persons fulfilling those criteria as Members.
6. Membership is not transferable and ceases on death. A Member shall cease to be a Member:-
  - 6.1 on the expiry of at least 7 clear days' written notice to the Charity of his/her intention to withdraw as a Member, which shall also (as applicable) automatically constitute resignation as a Trustee, provided at least two Trustees will remain in office when the resignation is to take effect;

  - 6.3 if he/she becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his/ her creditors generally; or
  - 6.4 if, at a meeting of the Trustees at which at least half of the Trustees are present, a resolution is passed resolving that the Member be removed as a Member on the ground that his/her continued membership is harmful to, or is likely to become harmful to, the interests of the Charity. Such a resolution shall not be passed unless the Member has been given at least 14 clear days' written notice that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard by, or of making written representations to, the Trustees. A member removed by such a resolution shall nevertheless remain liable to pay to the Charity any subscription or other sum owed by him/her.

- 6.5 if he/she is removed, as a community member, from any community, or institution managed by the Charity. For the avoidance of doubt, being a Member of the Charity and being a member of a community or institution managed by the Charity are separate matters.
7. The Trustees may establish such categories of membership as they consider appropriate and may levy subscriptions on Members at such rates as they decide and at different rates for different categories of Member.

Trustees

Number of Trustees

8. There shall be at least three Trustees, of whom at least two must not be Co-workers or otherwise resident in any community managed by the Charity. Appointment, retirement, removal and disqualification of Trustees

The Trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment/reappointment, but as between persons who became, or were last reappointed, Trustees on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be decided by lot.
11. If the Charity at the meeting at which a Trustee retires by rotation does not fill the vacancy, the retiring Trustee shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the reappointment of the Trustee is put to the meeting and lost.
12. No person may be appointed as a Trustee:
  - 12.1 unless he/she is a Member;
  - 12.2 unless he/she is over 18 years;
  - 12.3 in circumstances such that, had he/she already been a Trustee, he/she would have been disqualified from acting.
13. No person other than a Trustee retiring by rotation shall be appointed/reappointed a Trustee at any general meeting unless:-
  - 13.1 He/she is recommended by the Trustees; or
  - 13.2 at least 14, but not more than 35, clear days before the date of the meeting, written notice signed by a Member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Charity of an intention to propose that person for appointment/reappointment, stating the name and address of the nominee, together with written confirmation by the proposed nominee of his/her willingness to act.

14. At least 7, but not more than 28, clear days before the date of a general meeting, written notice shall be given to all Members of the name and address of any person (other than a Trustee retiring by rotation at the meeting) who is duly recommended/ nominated for appointment /reappointment as a Trustee at the meeting.

If not reappointed at such AGM, he/she shall vacate office at the end of the meeting.
17. Subject to the above Articles, a Trustee who retires at an AGM may, if willing to act, be reappointed. If he/she is not reappointed, he/she shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his/her place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.
18. The office of a Trustee shall be vacated if:-

  - 18.2 he/she ceases to be a Trustee by virtue of any provision of the Act, or becomes disqualified by law from being a company director or a charity trustee;

  - 18.4 he/she resigns by notice to the Charity, provided at least two Trustees will remain in office when the resignation is to take effect;
  - 18.5 he/she fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Trustees without reasonable apology and the Trustees resolve that he/she be removed for this reason;

  - 18.7 at a Trustees meeting at which at least half of the Trustees are present, a resolution is passed that he/she be removed from office. Such a resolution shall not be passed unless the Trustee has been given at least 14 clear days' notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard by or of making written representations to the Trustees.

Powers of Trustees

19. Subject to the Act, the Memorandum and the Articles, the business of the Charity shall be governed by the Trustees, who may exercise all the powers of the Charity. A meeting of Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Trustees.

All acts done by a person acting as a Trustee, even if it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in his/her appointment, or that he/she was disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, shall be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued in office.

46. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least 7 clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
